

Business Application Modernization (BAM)

BAM is a multi-phased project that involves a comprehensive review and re-design of the Department of State's business processes and the supporting technology.

• Background

- Phase 1: Set the Vision - Completed March 2004
 - Created the Vision and Objectives for the Project
 - Developed Phase 2 Requirements
- Phase 2: Business Requirement Defined - Completed April 2005
 - Business Process Reengineering (BPR)
 - Business Requirements Documented
 - Phased Implementation Strategy Defined
 - Developed Phase 3 Requirements
- Phase 3: Construct and Implementation - Start Date 10/10/05
 - Develop Project Governance Processes
 - Finalize Business Requirements
 - Initiate Phased System Construction and Implementation

